Family Constellations Workshop with Karen Passalacqua and Cyrus Gavriel

Restore natural order and love by healing wounds of the past and resolving issues in your life with Family Constellations.

This three dimensional group process allows us to uncover hidden dynamics from the past that may be manifesting in our current lives as relationship issues, financial instability, illness, addiction, depression, lack of motivation and the inability to move forward in life.

Once these hidden dynamics are revealed, we have the opportunity to graciously give back to our family members what doesn't belong to us and open ourselves up to receive the gifts, love and life force that flows through our ancestors to us. We then have the freedom to choose how to express and share these gifts with loved ones and the world, without being run by our unconscious, and often destructive patterns.

Allow yourself to embody a broader perspective on your past and step into the present with greater awareness, insight and vitality.
